

LMAX EXCHANGE WINS BEST FX ECN/MTF FOR THE FOURTH YEAR RUNNING

London, 25 February 2016 - LMAX Exchange, the leading FCA regulated MTF for global FX and one of the UK's fastest growing technology firms, has been named 'Best FX Trading Venue (ECN/MTF)' for the fourth year running at the 2016 Wall Street Letter (WSL) Institutional Trading Awards in New York.

The WSL Institutional Trading Awards honour innovation and excellence in the institutional trading industry, awarding exchanges, brokerages and financial technology companies for their achievements throughout the year.

David Mercer, CEO of LMAX Exchange commented: "Being named 'Best FX Trading Platform - ECN/MTF' by the Wall Street Letter for the fourth consecutive year is a reflection of our ongoing commitment to delivering efficiency, consistency and transparency of trading to FX institutions globally."

Leading the industry transformation to transparent, consistent and precise execution, LMAX Exchange has become an important voice in reforming the global FX market and calling for the end of "last look" and other practices open to market abuse. The company's report: Restoring Trust in global FX markets (available here: <https://www.lmax.com/restoring-trust-report>) included key contributions from the institutional FX industry.
